

6th STUDENT ANIMAL WELFARE CONFERENCE

Writtle College, Chelmsford
Wed 9th March

Supported by UFAW link funding

A WARM WELCOME FROM WRITTLE COLLEGE

Today's Proceedings

- 10.30 Registration (tea/coffee provided)
11.30 Welcome by Principal, Prof. Dave Butcher
11.35 Cognitive ability of domestic animals and relevance to how we treat them
Invited speaker – Prof. Don Broom, University of Cambridge

- SESSION 1 The Effect of Hierachy on the Recognition of Shape and Colour in the Domestic Fowl
12.25 – 13.10 Alessio Campanella
Equine Massage: Assessing stress during massage and the effects on locomotion throughout a 6-8 week period between massage sessions
Emma Knott
An investigation into the effect of agility on the overall health and incidence rate of limb/joint problem in dogs
Fiona Wilson
- SESSION 2 Increasing the activity levels of captive African elephants (Loxodonta africana) by using environmental enrichment
14.00 – 14.50 Leilah Webb
Assessment of pain and lameness scores to evaluate the effectiveness of canine hydrotherapy for rehabilitation following orthopaedic surgery
Shelby Webster
Effects in health and production of a change in the management system of dairy cattle at Home Farm, Hartpury
Madeleine Ball & Fernando Mata
The effect of a two step weaning method on the behaviour of six-month old Belgian Blue crossbred beef calves
Harriet Stevens
- SESSION 3 Behavioural Reactions to a Sudden Novel Stimulus: A Comparison between Horses and Ponies
15.00 – 15.50 Emma Sewell
The effect of farming system, parity and calving season on the prevalence of metritis on dairy cows
Sophie Brooks & Fernando Mata
Aggression in a Damara zebra stallion within a mixed species exhibit at Colchester Zoo
Jane Farrington
Cognitive bias in domestic hens (Gallus gallus domesticus): optimism and the effects of environmental enrichment
Helen Tedds

16.00

Presentation of awards
CONFERENCE CLOSES

