

Animal Welfare Student Scholarship: Final Report

UFAW is a charity and we are dedicated to advancing the knowledge and understanding of animal welfare. It is therefore essential to gauge the impact of the projects that we support.

By reporting on your Student Scholarship research project supported by UFAW, acknowledging UFAW when you present or publish this research, and informing UFAW of any publications or presentations arising from your research project, you are helping us to ensure that we spend our funds in the best way possible and to achieve our main goal – improving the welfare of animals – thank you!

Student Scholar:
Project title:

Brief Account: Please give a brief account of your project. This should be aimed at the general public (ie people who do not necessarily have a detailed understanding of animal welfare or the subject area) and should explain the background of the project, why it is important for animal welfare, and the benefits/outcomes of the work.
Presentations and publications: If you have already presented or published your work (or have plans to), please give details:
Any other impacts or important outcomes that arose from your scholarship experience and you'd like to tell us about? Please include these here: These can be related to the animal welfare impact of your project, e.g. perhaps your results brought about a change in an animal welfare care protocol, or they could be important to your own personal development, e.g. learning a new skill or feeling more confident in how you tackle an animal welfare problem.

Please send your completed report to: grants@ufaw.org.uk.

Please note: excerpts from this report may be used in UFAW communications (such as the Annual Report, Newsletter, or online eg UFAWs website or social media).

For full reporting requirements, including copyright and publications, please refer to Sections 12 to 17 of the UFAW AWSS Terms and Conditions.