York Merchant Adventurers' Hall UK, 23rd June 2016

Travel:

The Merchant Adventurers' Hall can be found in the heart of historic York. The Hall is between the streets named Piccadilly and Fossgate and is fully accessible from Fossgate.

- BY RAIL

Travelling to York by train is easy. There are direct daily services from London, Edinburgh, Liverpool, Manchester, Birmingham and the South West. National Rail Enquiries: 08457 484950; <http://www.nationalrail.co.uk/>.

- BY ROAD

The A1/M1 motorway network is connected to the A64 by the A1/M1 link road providing fast motorway links from all regions of the UK. There are a number of clearly sign-posted car parks close to the Merchant Adventurers' Hall (see map <http://www.visit-york.org/information/maps-of-york.aspx>) but the parking for the day at these is expensive. Alternatively, and much cheaper, there is a network of Park & Ride facilities situated on the outskirts of York with a quick, low- fare service into the centre of York.
